

I feel that the public needs more time to be made aware of the FCC plans to end restrictions on mergers of media companies on June 2. Much more time is needed for study and public hearings on this matter. A few powerful and rich media owners are obviously calling the shots on this!